Are you interested in becoming a Volunteer?

Community & Oral Health (COH) offers a broad range of quality community-based health-care and support services to help people improve and maintain their well-being and independence.

COH operates community health facilities across the Brisbane North region, from inner-city Red Hill to bayside Brighton.

The volunteer program manages Volunteers across the service.

Our Volunteers work alongside health-care staff to provide support, companionship and care for our clients, patients and residents and their loved ones.

Volunteer with us:

Volunteers play an important role in helping us care for our patients and residents.

Your voice matters in health!

We are seeking current or past patients of Queensland Health who are interested in helping design and deliver better community services.

You may also be a family or a carer of a patient/client who has or is using health services.

Become a Consumer Representative today and share your voice and help us improve current and future service development.

Potential involvement opportunities:

- reviewing and providing feedback on draft brochures/flyers;
- being invited to community events;
- participating in workshops/focus groups; and
- many more opportunities to be involved in different engagement activities.
