Congratulations to each of our 63 nominees for this year's awards.

These nominations were drawn from the 70 submissions from hospital staff, students, and volunteers for these eight award categories. In addition, there is also a ninth award that will be presented on the day, the Executive Director's Award.

Thank you again to those staff who took the time to submit a nomination. We'll be recognising nominees in a special way at this year's awards too.

The awards will be presented on Wednesday 17 July in the Education Centre, and broadcast live on Teams. Please join us online, if you can.

Our awards are proudly sponsored by QSuper, part of Australian Retirement Trust.
