

Kia Ora CKW Team,

Do you know of an outstanding Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander staff member, service or initiative? Nominate them now for the 'Deadly Awards'.

The Metro North Health Deadly Awards are an opportunity to recognise and celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff and services for the great work they are doing to improve health outcomes and achieve health equity for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

The finalists for each award category will be announced via our A&TSILT communications platforms week commencing 18 November. The Deadly Awards will be presented to the winners, runners up, and highly commended award recipients at the Better Together Staff Gathering on Thursday 5 December.

Click on the button below to find out more, or to nominate.

Nominations will close 5pm Friday 1 November 2024.

A promotional graphic for the Deadly Awards. The top half features a colorful Aboriginal-style pattern with fish and circular motifs. Below this, a dark blue ribbon graphic contains the text "Deadly Award" in white. To the right, the text "Better Together Staff Gathering" is in dark blue, and "Deadly Awards" is in large white letters. Below that, it says "Nominate an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander staff member, service or team!" in dark blue. On the far right, a white circular badge with a dark blue border contains the text "OPEN NOW" in dark blue. At the bottom, there are logos for "Metro North Health" and the "Queensland Government".

Nominate Now

Kind regards,

Karlene Willcocks

Executive Director,

Caboolture, Kilcoy and Woodford

We respectfully acknowledge the Traditional Owners and Custodians of the land on which our facilities are built. We also pay respect and acknowledge Elders past, present and the future.

Metro North
Health

Queensland
Government

Produced by the Metro North Communication Directorate