Dear colleagues

Tonight and tomorrow, families and communities will come together, each in their own way, to celebrate Christmas.

As they do, here at Redcliffe Hospital, hundreds of nurses, midwives, doctors, allied health professionals, operational and administrative staff will be hard at work, delivering and supporting patient care.

To all those working tonight and tomorrow - thank you for the comfort and compassion you'll provide. To those caring for patients, thank you for the kindness and joy you'll share with them and their families.

For those spending Christmas at home, or in the company of friends and family, I wish for you all a happy and peaceful day.

As the year draws to a close, you deserve to feel proud of what we have achieved together this year for our patients and community.

On behalf of the hospital leadership team, thank you for everything you've done this year.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas.
