

RACS Trauma Week 2023 – eMOBILITY – current perspectives and future directions
Friday 17 November 2023
Queensland University of Technology – Kelvin Grove Campus
DRAFT PROGRAM

Time	Topic	Speakers	Length
8.55	Welcome to Country	QUT video
9.00	Opening	Matthew Hope
9.05am-10.00am	Scene setting – Background, legislation, current state of play nationally	RACS position- Matthew Hope ACEMS position- Sarah Whitelaw Road rules & regulation’ – Nick Mackay Environmental benefits/public health benefits/Broader context – Ben Beck	15 mins each speaker
10.00-10.30am Morning Tea
10.30am-12.00pm	Views from the health sector
	Injury statistics, risk factors and patterns	Qld – Kirsten Vallmuur Perth – Dieter Weber	10 mins each speaker
	Perspectives from the field	Ambulance – Tony Hucker ED – Fran Williamson Trauma – David Read ICU – Greg Comadira	10 mins each speaker
12-1pm Lunch
1-2.30pm	Views from outside the health sector
	Potential impacts of emobility	Drivers of emobility–Brendon O’Keefe Impact on pedestrians – Harold Scruby Disability groups and challenges - Impact on the blind and low vision community – Sarah Hartley	10 mins each speaker
	Perspectives from the field	Enforcement – Duncan Hill Regulation/product safety—Adrian Roudenko Automobile associations – Joel Tucker	10 mins each speaker
2.30-3pm Afternoon Tea
3-4pm	Panel discussion and questions from the audience		