

Women's Business Shared Pathway

The Women's Business Shared Pathway provides culturally safe gynaecology care to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women across the Northern Brisbane area.

Our friendly team from the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital can see you for an appointment at Nundah, Pine Rivers, Morayfield or Deception Bay with the following care available:

- Specialist gynaecologist assessment and treatment
- Physiotherapy assessment and treatment
- Dietitian assessment and treatment
- Surgical treatment at the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital
- Cultural support and transport

How it works

Do I need a referral?

Yes. You will need a referral from your GP. If you need any help getting a referral please contact us on the number or email below.

How do I book an appointment?

Once we receive your referral, our friendly team will contact you to book your appointment and make sure you have the support needed to attend your appointment, including help with transport.

Is there a fee?

No. The Women's Business Shared Pathway is a free service.

How can I find out more?
