Alternative parking options

Street parking

Street parking is limited around the RBWH with many local streets having time limits or requiring payments.

For more information about street parking, please visit:

<https://www.brisbane.qld.gov.au/traffic-and-transport/parking-in-brisbane/where-to-park/parking-around-hospitals/parking-around-the-royal-brisbane-and-womens-hospital>

Park 'n' ride

Many of our patients choose to Park 'n' ride. Some bus and train stations have a car park or street parking available, so you can drive to your local public transport and then catch the bus or train to the RBWH.

For more information about your local Park 'n' ride, please see the link:

<https://translink.com.au/travel-with-us/parking>

The closest train stations to the RBWH are Brunswick Street station (Fortitude Valley) or Bowen Hills station. Both are about 1km walk from the RBWH.

Please see the next page for information about buses.

Drop-off areas

In front of the main entrance and emergency department of the hospital (Butterfield Street), there is a 2-minute pick up and drop off zone.

Bus

The RBWH Busway station is located next to the hospital.
