

THE PRINCE CHARLES HOSPITAL

ADVANCED LIFE SUPPORT

COURSES 2022

All courses are accredited with the ARC

Advanced Life Support - Level 1

- One-day course providing candidates with the skills and knowledge to manage the patient in the immediate period of crisis
- Practical workshops and simulations providing skills for management of the deteriorating patient and cardiac arrest including airway management, basic life support and safe defibrillation
- Course is approved by the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) and provides certification recognised in Australia, New Zealand and Europe, valid for 4 years

Appropriate Participants:

All Medical, Nursing and Paramedic

Course Fees:

MNHHS staff: $250
All other participants: $500

Course Dates:

- 1st March
- 2nd March
- 10th June
- 29th August
- 30th August
- 24th October

Advanced Life Support - Level 2

- 2-day course focusing on developing advanced skills in managing the deteriorating patient and cardiac arrest
- Practical workshops and simulations providing skills including airway management, safe defibrillation, management of life-threatening arrhythmias and leading a cardiac arrest team
- The course is very intensive, and candidates are sent the ALS 2 Manual one month prior to the course. Candidates are required to complete a pre-course multiple choice question paper to guide preparation
- Course is approved by the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) and provides certification recognised in Australia, New Zealand and Europe, valid for 4 years

Appropriate Participants:

Doctors and nurses working in critical care areas (eg. ED, ICU, CCU) or in the resuscitation/ medical emergency team and paramedics

Course Fees:

MNHHS staff: $500
All other participants: $750

Course Dates:

- 24th – 25th March
- 19th – 20th May
- 12th–13th September
- 17th–18th November

For more information or to enrol, please email:
TPCH-Medical-Education@health.qld.gov.au