

Queensland
Trauma
Symposium

2019 Queensland Trauma Symposium Program

FRIDAY 22 February

TIME	SESSION
7.30–8.00	Registrations open
8.00–8.05	Welcome and housekeeping
8.05–8.10	Acknowledgement of Country – Mr Gene Blow. Cultural Capability Officer, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital.
Chair: Professor Michael Reade
8.10–8.40	Opening address: Triumph from Tragedy - Mr Curtis McGrath OAM. Army Veteran and Paralympian
8.40–9.10	Tactical Casualty Care - Dr Martin Graves. Anaesthetist, Wollongong Hospital and Australian Army
9.10–9.40	Cliff Pollard Lecture - Making Trauma Great
9.40–10.00	MORNING TEA
10.00–10.30	Keynote address: Dr Andrew Beckett. Lieutenant Colonel, Royal Canadian Medical Service. Trauma Surgeon, Montreal General Hospital
	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>EDUCATION CENTRE AUDITORIUM Chair: Ms Fiona Jennings</th> <th>EDUCATION CENTRE SEMINAR ROOM 1 Chair: Ms Kate Dale</th> <th>PAEDIATRIC BREAKOUT SESSION SEMINAR ROOM 2 Chair: Professor Roy Kimble</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>10.30–10.45 Ketamine – why everyone needs some - Dr Kylie Hall. Anaesthetist, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital</td> <td>Clinical Practice Guidelines – Evidence to Practice - Lachlan Parker. Critical Care Paramedic, Queensland Ambulance Service</td> <td>Catastrophic Schoolboy Rugby Injuries. Dr Robert Campbell. Neurosurgeon, Queensland Children's Hospital</td> </tr> <tr> <td>10.45–11.00 Changing role of Interventional Radiology in Trauma - Dr John Grieve. Interventional Radiologist, Gold Coast University Hospital</td> <td>Recovery after major trauma: measuring trauma outcomes and burden - Professor Belinda Gabbe. Monash University, School of Public Health and Preventive Medicine</td> <td>Effectiveness of a hydrogel dressing as an analgesia adjunct to first aid for the treatment of acute paediatric burn injuries: A prospective randomised controlled trial. Miss Maleea Holbert. Centre for Children's Burns and Trauma Research</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	EDUCATION CENTRE AUDITORIUM Chair: Ms Fiona Jennings	EDUCATION CENTRE SEMINAR ROOM 1 Chair: Ms Kate Dale	PAEDIATRIC BREAKOUT SESSION SEMINAR ROOM 2 Chair: Professor Roy Kimble	10.30–10.45 Ketamine – why everyone needs some - Dr Kylie Hall. Anaesthetist, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital	Clinical Practice Guidelines – Evidence to Practice - Lachlan Parker. Critical Care Paramedic, Queensland Ambulance Service	Catastrophic Schoolboy Rugby Injuries. Dr Robert Campbell. Neurosurgeon, Queensland Children's Hospital	10.45–11.00 Changing role of Interventional Radiology in Trauma - Dr John Grieve. Interventional Radiologist, Gold Coast University Hospital	Recovery after major trauma: measuring trauma outcomes and burden - Professor Belinda Gabbe. Monash University, School of Public Health and Preventive Medicine	Effectiveness of a hydrogel dressing as an analgesia adjunct to first aid for the treatment of acute paediatric burn injuries: A prospective randomised controlled trial. Miss Maleea Holbert. Centre for Children's Burns and Trauma Research
EDUCATION CENTRE AUDITORIUM Chair: Ms Fiona Jennings	EDUCATION CENTRE SEMINAR ROOM 1 Chair: Ms Kate Dale	PAEDIATRIC BREAKOUT SESSION SEMINAR ROOM 2 Chair: Professor Roy Kimble
10.30–10.45 Ketamine – why everyone needs some - Dr Kylie Hall. Anaesthetist, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital	Clinical Practice Guidelines – Evidence to Practice - Lachlan Parker. Critical Care Paramedic, Queensland Ambulance Service	Catastrophic Schoolboy Rugby Injuries. Dr Robert Campbell. Neurosurgeon, Queensland Children's Hospital
10.45–11.00 Changing role of Interventional Radiology in Trauma - Dr John Grieve. Interventional Radiologist, Gold Coast University Hospital	Recovery after major trauma: measuring trauma outcomes and burden - Professor Belinda Gabbe. Monash University, School of Public Health and Preventive Medicine	Effectiveness of a hydrogel dressing as an analgesia adjunct to first aid for the treatment of acute paediatric burn injuries: A prospective randomised controlled trial. Miss Maleea Holbert. Centre for Children's Burns and Trauma Research

2019 Queensland Trauma Symposium Program

FRIDAY 22 February

11.00–11.15	Retrieval systems in Australia and around the world. How does Queensland fair? - A/Professor Bill Nimo. Emergency Physician and Retrieval Specialist, Retrieval Services Queensland	Interesting Case Study. Dr Andrew Beckett. Lieutenant Colonel, Royal Canadian Medical Service. Trauma Surgeon, Montreal General Hospital	A review of children with severe trauma admitted to paediatric intensive care in Queensland, Australia. Dr Mark Coulthard. Queensland Children's Hospital
11.15–11.30	Nursing Leadership in Trauma Care - Ms Kellie Gumm. Trauma Program Manager, The Royal Melbourne Hospital	Heterogeneity in Burns. A Two Year Retrospective Review of Patients Admitted to a Quaternary Burns Intensive Care Unit – Dr Juliette Mewton. Intensive Care Fellow, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital	Diagnosing burn wound severity: Biomarkers and wound biochemistry. A/Prof Leila Cuttle. Queensland University of Technology
11.30–11.45	A Severe Trauma in Weipa – Managing a gunshot wound in a remote hospital setting - Dr Alex Dunn. Senior Medical Officer, Gympie Hospital	Free Paper: Early in-reach rehabilitation for trauma patients. Dr Teresa Boyle. Rehabilitation Physician. Gold Coast University Hospital	Trauma: Beyond the Injury. Claire Lake & Antonia Solomon. Trauma Family Support Team, Queensland Children's Hospital
11.45–12.00	Helping Justine: Insights from a difficult rescue (pre-hospital care of a shark attack victim). Dr John Hadok. Emergency Physician, Mackay Health and Hospital Service	Free Paper: Fibrinogen Early In Severe Trauma Study. Fibrinogen Concentrate vs. Cryoprecipitate in Severe Traumatic Haemorrhage: A Pilot Randomised Controlled Trial. Professor Martin Wullschleger. Trauma Director. Gold Coast University Hospital	The Role of Plastic Surgery in Lower Limb Amputation. Dr Yun Phua. Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon, Queensland Children's Hospital
12.00–12.45	LUNCH – Poster presentations - Education Centre Foyer
	EDUCATION CENTRE AUDITORIUM Chair: Mr Michael Handy	EDUCATION CENTRE SEMINAR ROOM 1 Chair: Ms Kellie Gumm
12.45–13.00	Challenges for Advanced Prehospital Trauma Practice. Mr Aaron Smee. Paramedic, High Acuity Response Unit, Queensland Ambulance Service	Free Paper: Risk factors for the development of post-traumatic stress disorder and / or major depressive disorder following admission to a Trauma Service: Protocol and preliminary analyses from systematic quantitative review and meta-analysis. Dr Kristen Jones. Clinical Psychologist. Acute Medical/Surgical Services. Gold Coast University Hospital
13.00–13.15	Orthopaedic Trauma – Dr Matthew Hope. Orthopaedic Surgeon, Princess Alexandra Hospital	Free Paper: Relational coordination of trauma care at Gold Coast University Hospital. Dr Eve Purdy. Senior Emergency Registrar, Gold Coast University Hospital

2019 Queensland Trauma Symposium Program

FRIDAY 22 February

13.15–13.30	Anaesthetic approach to airway injury – Dr Marc Maguire. Anaesthetist, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital	Free Paper: Mouthpiece Ventilation – Positively INSPIRational – Ms Brooke Wadsworth. Advanced Physiotherapist. Princess Alexandra Hospital
-------------	---	---

EDUCATION CENTRE AUDITORIUM

Chairs: Professor Rebecca Kimble and Dr Steve Rashford

13.30–13.50	New Zealand Trauma System and Verification – Professor Ian Civil. Director, Trauma Service, Auckland City Hospital
13.50–14.20	Working Together Dr Matthew Hope. Chair, Royal Australasian College of Surgeons Trauma Committee, Queensland Professor Martin Wullschleger. Chair, State-wide Trauma Clinical Network Professor Michael Schuetz. Director, Jamieson Trauma Institute
14.20–14.50	AFTERNOON TEA
14.50–15.05	Spinal Injuries – Dr Dennis Hartig. Orthopaedic Spinal Surgeon, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital
15.05–15.20	Chest and complex cardiac injuries: Dr Priscilla Martin. General Surgeon, Sunshine Coast University Hospital
15.20–15.35	Implementation of clinical practice guidelines for haemodynamically stable blunt splenic injury patients. Dr Bhavik Patel. Queensland Health
15.35–15.50	What about the rest of Queensland? Dr Nathan Brunott. General Surgeon, Cairns Hospital
15.50–16.30	Trauma throughout Queensland Panel Discussion
16.30–17.00	CLOSE – acknowledgements, trade passport winner, lucky door prize
17.00–19.00	Symposium reception – Education Centre Foyer	