

The Kenneth Jamieson Lecture

Kenneth G Jamieson. His Legacy-Our Response

DATE:

Thursday 26 March 2020

TIME:

5.30pm – 7pm
(Lecture starts at 6pm)

VENUE:

RBWH Education Centre Auditorium

RSVP/REGISTRATION:

This event is free to attend.
Please register your interest at [www.metronorth.health.qld.gov.au/

jamieson-trauma-institute/jti-events](http://www.metronorth.health.qld.gov.au/jamieson-trauma-institute/jti-events)

GUEST SPEAKER:

Dr Michael Redmond

Dr Michael Redmond received his medical degree at The University of Queensland. He completed his surgical education and training in Brisbane and at the Mayo Clinic, the Massachusetts General Hospital and the Toronto Children's Hospital in North America. He has worked at various Brisbane hospitals over the years but has joined the Royal Brisbane Hospital after a three-year sojourn in the Royal Darwin Hospital where he continues to have an interest. He practices general neurosurgery.

KENNETH GRANT JAMIESON

M.S. (Melb.), M.D. (Melb.), D.S. (QLD), F.R.A.C.S., F.A.C.S.
SENIOR NEUROSURGEON ROYAL BRISBANE HOSPITAL
1925 – 1976