

CAHRLI Demystifying Research Workshop 2021

Overview

Overview:	This is a full-day interactive, practice-based workshop designed for novice researchers to take them through the stages of a research journey
Target Participants:	MNHHS Allied Health, Nursing and Medical staff, and staff with an interest in Research. This course is targeted at novice researchers.
Minimum Participants:	20	Maximum Participants:	35
Course Fee:	Nil
Workshop details:	Date:	Time	Venue:
	Tuesday 10 th August 2021	8:00am – 4:30pm	RBWH Education Centre, Seminar Room 1 and 2
Duration:	8 hours	Primary Facilitators:	Dr Joel Dulhunty Dr Angela Chang
Catering:	Morning tea and afternoon tea food items will be provided. Pulse Café is located next door to the Education Centre for lunch and drink purchase if required. Participants bringing own lunch may use the Education Centre fridges for storage.
Pre-reading:	Pre-reading material will be emailed prior to the course.
Past participant feedback	“Overall it was great. I have learnt a lot and look forward to starting research!” “Very good program, made knowledge applicable” “All very good. Worthwhile”
Register	Expressions of interest here
Queries?	Contact CAHRLI@health.qld.gov.au

Content

This is an interactive, practice-based workshop designed for novice researchers to take them through the stages of a research journey. Content will include:

- Framing research questions and literature searching
- Study design
- Quantitative and qualitative methods
- Ethics, governance and funding
- Data collection
- Statistical analysis
- Publication and project completion