ALLIED HEALTH RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

Transforming Healthcare through Research, Innovation & Excellence

Allied Health Research Symposium 2023 Call for Abstracts

Background

The Metro South Health and Metro North Health Allied Health Research Symposium “THRIVE” will be held Wednesday 2 August 2023 at the Translational Research Institute from 8:30am – 3:30pm. Both in-person and virtual attendance via MS Teams will be possible for attendees, however presenters are asked to attend in person unless there are extenuating circumstances. The aim is to showcase high quality, broadly applicable allied health initiatives.

Call for Abstracts

Abstract submissions for high quality research, education and innovation/translation initiatives with clear outcomes and implications for practice are sought from Allied Health and associated staff (Health Practitioners, Clinical Assistants, Administration Officers) across Queensland Health and University partners. Options for presentations include:

1. Oral presentation (8-10 minutes)
2. Lightning talk (3-5 minutes)
3. E-poster

Please indicate your preference in the Abstract Submission Form for consideration by the Scientific Committee, though note that you may be offered any presentation type. Presentation types are also subject to change at the discretion of the Symposium Organising Committee.

Awards

At the Symposium conclusion, awards will be presented in the following categories, based on abstract and presentation scores: (1) Best oral presentation; (2) Best lightning presentation; and (3) Best e-poster.

Please note that these Award types are also subject to change at the discretion of the Organising Committee.

Process for Submission

Please submit an abstract in Microsoft Forms via this link by midnight Sunday 30 April 2023. Please ensure all sections are completed. Upon successful submission of your abstract in MS Forms, you will see an automated submissions notice. Late applications will not be accepted.

The Allied Health Research Symposium is proudly hosted in partnership by Metro North Health and Metro South Health
